

Operation Tethys Summary

TS Date of Mission: 12/16/2010

Real Date: 3/17/17

Mission Attendees: Quantum, J.C., & Caspian

Injuries: Quantum took a lot of bullet wounds but was knocked unconscious during a hand-to-hand exchange.

Payment & Experience Points:

Payment for the mission is: $0

Mission XP is: 250 divided by level

Summary of Mission: PC's met in Houston, went to safehouse, received briefing, and left safehouse. They got in the limo coach. They noted that the driver and guard were both armed but did not know with what. J.C. noted (with a roll of 01) that the driver of the limo, as he was walking around the vehicle, took off his gloves and rolled them up inside themselves and put into his pocket. The door was closed and the limo moved out. Caspian forced himself to throw up in the limo coach. About 15 minutes or so later, the vehicle came to a halt. All of the PC's were beginning to get sleepy. They then went unconscious. Caspian had a brief moment of consciousness and saw a dark garage, being rolled on a gurney, and 2 of the limo coaches. They were next seated in a room and tied, arms & legs to chairs. They were awakened by a needle stick in their arms and awoke to 6 people in the room. Three of them were Dr. Olson's children. Two of them were a guard and a driver. The last person was a woman whose ethnicity appeared to be oriental. She apologized to the PC's for having to knock them out but said that they wanted to make sure that everyone was ok and no violence occurred and to be able for the PC's to hear the appeal of Dr. Olson's children. The woman ordered that the PC's bonds be cut (which the driver cautiously did) and after they were released were given briefings. After any questions were answered and the now identified as a Chauncy agent woman got the PC's commitment to perform the mission from them, the PC's began getting up to leave. J.C., went over to the woman at the table and stuck out his hand. The woman cautiously stood up and then did a brief, cautious, slight bow. J.C., elected to reach out and Judo the woman and toss her over his shoulder into the chairs. Everyone was shocked and the driver & guard immediately pulled out Beretta 12-S subguns and aimed them at Caspian and Quantum. After a brief tense moment, in which Quantum blubbered 'what?, what? Uh, what?', The guard went over to assist the woman in getting up and she waved him off and told them to take the PC's to the vehicle and get moving. The PC's all then went to their original (now called the Vomit Van) vehicle. They were transported to the airport and took off to Chile as originally planned.

Mercedes Limo Coach

Chauncy Agent

The PC's touched down in Santiago, Chile. Received a helicopter ride to the resort. During all of this movement the PC's were able to glean various rumors about the area. The PC's were dropped off at a dirt landing area near the resort where two SUV's were waiting for them. They took both, Quantum & J.C. in one with Quantum driving and Caspian driving the other. They headed to the resort with the intention of going to the pyramid. Caspian went to a far parking lot, paying with cash to get in, with most of their "cover" gear as well as any of the larger personal weaponry of the PC's. He gathered up all of the gear and began hoofing it back to the pyramid to meet the others. Quantum and J.C. went to the parking area closer to the pyramid, again paying to get in. They began heading out to the pyramid; Quantum playing the role of the reporter with J.C. being the cameraman. As they approached the area of the pyramid, they noticed a bunch of activity all around. People on boats in the lagoon, in the hot tub area near the pyramid, several around a Tiki Hut like refreshment stand, and small groups of people at the beach inside the pyramid, including the reporter & Dr. Olson meeting at a table under the pyramid. Quantum elected to go up to the glass hallway to gain admittance to the pyramid. J.C. hung back watching the people, paying particular attention to a group of 4 people, all sporting bright orange life vests, who had come up to a nearby dock on a boat and 2 of them got out, carrying a cooler between them. J.C. got approached by a waitress and she kept getting into his line of sight so he ordered a beer. She left to get it. A few minutes later, all heck broke loose.

Glass Pyramid

The two people that got out of the boat, with the cooler, and wearing the orange vests, put the cooler down and pulled out mini-uzi's and began walking towards the pyramid in the direction of where Dr. Olson and the reporter were. After a few steps, they began firing into the pyramid windows, breaking them at the corner and firing at Dr. Olson and the reporter, hitting both. Dr. Olson took a severe headshot and collapsed. Quantum began racing into the glass hallway towards the door into the pyramid. J.C. took out his weapon and got ready to shoot the two people already shooting. Caspian (from far away) kept trying to hustle up and get to the area. Quantum went into the pyramid and rapidly advanced on Olson, bursting through a table that had 4 teenage boys sitting at it. He ran to her and put himself between the guys shooting at her and covered her body, protecting it. J.C. began shooting at the two guys and then noticed that a nearby resort cleaning staff person had begun pulling a weapon out of his cleaning cart. The guys got some more shots off (with one having a suspiciously short burst) and then J.C. began taking them out. One went down and the second guy dropped his weapon and picked up the weapon from the first guy and shot another burst from it before J.C. took him out too. It was then noticed that the other two people in the boat had maneuvered around till they got out their own weapons and were getting ready to shoot at J.C. Meanwhile, Caspian got to the fringe edge of the action and took out his Galil, shooting at and dropping the cleaning guy and one of the people in the boat. He then dropped a 40mm grenade on the boat, blowing it up.

Quantum got up with Dr. Olson and still shielding her got ready to move her out of the pyramid. He then noticed that another couple inside the pyramid had gotten out weapons and were advancing on his position. The reporter had gotten out a pistol and was pointing it at him. Quantum took Dr. Olson and began leading her to the glass door out of the pyramid and the reporter and the other couple were behind him and following him out too. As he was going through the hallway, there was another couple that was on the observation area. They had pulled out weapons and began to fire at Quantum and Dr. Olson. Quantum returned fire and while doing so also caught a brief glimpse of two people, dressed in resort employee clothing, at the other end of the glass hallway at the changing area with weapons. One of these people also shot at the couple and the other shot at Quantum. The couple went down in a hail of lead. They then both turned their weapons on to Quantum.

From his position, Caspian dropped the cover equipment and hurried toward the pyramid with the PC's equipment and his own weapons.

J.C. meanwhile got into a scuffle with the people at the refreshment stand. J.C. elected to roll over the top of the stand and into the middle of it. As he did this, he hit one person and they rolled onto the floor. As J.C. began to get up, a woman clubbed him with a weapon, but did not knock him out. J.C. just tilted his weapon up from the floor and fired a burst into her, killing her. He then tried to do hand-to-hand with the other guy but the guy scooted back away from him and tried to bring his weapon up to shoot. J.C. then killed that guy with a burst too. J.C. then tried to get up from the floor of the refreshment stand and as he did, there were two people in resort employee outfits (one waiter and one waitress). Both were armed and getting ready to shoot J.C. The waitress was the one that J.C. had ordered the beer from. Caspian, by this point had gotten to a position where he could see what was going on with J.C. In the end, J.C. took out the waitress and Caspian took out the waiter.

Quantum had advanced on the two at the end of the glass hallway and tried to do hand-to-hand combat. He had a little success but in the end, he had taken too much bullet damage and got hit for damage towards unconscious but did not die. At that point, the reporter, Dr. Olson being helped by the reporter, the two people at the end of the hallway, and the couple from the pyramid began moving out around the outside of the circular building. They were joined by another person wearing resort clothing and appeared to be in the cleaning crew. J.C. and Caspian kept an eye on them and as they entered into their line of fire, began firing on them. At one point during this exchange, Caspian noted and relayed to J.C. that there was someone swimming to the end of the pyramid near the jacuzzi area but they were not able to determine who it was or see them. Several were killed but the reporter, Dr. Olson, and the cleaning guy survived and got to the second door and went in. Caspian got up to follow them and J.C. rushed over to where Quantum was. Caspian went into the door and discovered it was an entrance to a restaurant. He then took a little bit to search the doors, watch the people cowering under restaurant tables and advanced on several doors in the back of the restaurant. J.C. woke Quantum back up and about that same time, Caspian discovered that the group of people had gone out the back door of the restaurant. He followed them out, carefully watching his back and cautiously approached the edge of the building. He didn't see them but discovered a slight trail of blood leading to the nearest hotel entrance. He reported this to J.C. & Quantum who went their from their end. They all ended up in the hotel lobby and after a brief walk-around to see the layout, they discovered that the blood trail ended in an area that included a stairwell on one side and a bank of elevators on another. J.C. quickly went to the front desk to see if he could see any monitors watching cameras around the hotel. He did not see any. At this point they elected to call things off and retreat out of the resort as they were too banged up to continue. They called the chopper, drove one of the SUV's back to the pickup area, were transported back to Santiago and had the Gulfstream fly them out.

Per the agents response to question of what do they do when returning to Houston. From lead agent, Quantum:

“Okay, so, we let the plane go to GBI for E.R.I.N debrief. Quantum will then drive over to the regional airport for Chauncey debrief, and will strongly advise JC to wait in the car. Then the long drive back north.”

---

When the agents get back to Houston they receive the following information:

THE SANTIAGO TIMES

Since 1991

14 Killed, Two Wounded, During Terrorist Attack At San Alfonso del Mar Resort

Santiago, Chile – According to Chilean authorities 14 people were killed and 2 wounded during a terrorist attack at the San Alfonso del Mar Resort on December 17, 2010. Witnesses report that for unknown reasons, several people began shooting at people vacationing in the glass pyramid. The shooting intensified when several other people around the resort area brandished weapons and the pyramid area quickly became a kill zone. Authorities are still investigating the incident and have been reluctant to release information. A person close to the investigation and speaking on the condition of anonymity has said that none of the people injured or killed in the attack are Chileans. The source also said that the 2 wounded people are being kept under house arrest while the investigation is ongoing. One of the people killed was wounded in the shooting and managed to make it back up to their hotel room and was later found suffering from a severe head wound. This person was taken to the hospital but later succumbed to their injuries. Identity of this individual is being withheld pending notification of next of kin. Sources say that this person was a US citizen. Several reports indicate that several individuals involved in this incident escaped from the area and are still at large. Chilean officials refuse to confirm or deny these reports.

Witnesses say at one point, an explosion occurred in a boat in the lagoon. It is not known if any of the people on the boat survived. Witnesses report that there were several large cases and bags full of audio/visual equipment and helmets that were abandoned. It is reported that a logo was inscribed on the equipment that said “Sojourn”. Sources also say that the United States Embassy in Santiago has sent officials to San Alfonso del Mar Resort and are conferring with Chilean authorities. Further information will be published as soon as it becomes available.

---

Sources from E.R.I.N. can relay to the agents the following:

1. The person in the hotel room that succumbed to their injuries was Dr. Olson.
2. U.S. embassy personnel are negotiating with Chilean officials regarding the 2 wounded individuals. Although E.R.I.N. can't confirm this, there is a strong possibility that the two wounded individuals were working for the U.S. government in some way and the U.S. is trying to smooth over any potential diplomatic issues. One of the surviving individuals was wearing an orange life vest and was said to have survived a grenade explosion. This person would have drowned if not for the life vest.
3. Of the remaining nine killed, all were from the Malaysian/Indian area of the world. Although further investigation is being conducted, it appears that these people were attached to the organization known as Oriental Business Interests (OBI). It also appears that the reporter that Dr. Olson met may somehow be connected to OBI. Again, further investigation is underway.